19. CONSTITUTION REVIEW COMMITTEE 19

PREAMBLE

WHEREAS we, the alumni (graduates and former students) of Carroll High School, residing in the diaspora (all countries except Liberia), realize the need to form ourselves into a legal entity to pursue developmental objectives for the social, educational, and economic advancement of our alma mater.

WHEREAS, seeking to promote closer relations amongst us and recognizing the importance of unifying all interested alumni to foster the well-being and happiness of one another, we do hereby form and organize ourselves into an association to be known as the Carroll High School Alumni Association in the Diaspora (CHSAAD).

ARTICLE I

NAME, MOTTO, SEAL & COLOR, HEADQUARTERS

Section 1.1: The association's name shall be Carroll High School Alumni Association in the Diaspora (CHSAAD), and it shall cover all countries except Liberia.

Section 1.2: The Motto of CHSAAD shall be "Ad Astra Per Ardua", which means "Through Adversity to the Stars" in Latin.

Section 1.3: The Association's Seal shall be the official seal of the school, and its colors shall be red, white, and blue.

Section 1.4: The Headquarters of the Association shall be in the city/state where the current President resides.

ARTICLE II

NATURE, AIMS, AND OBJECTIVES

Section 2.1: Nature: The association is a nonprofit corporation and shall function under the not-for-profit laws of the United States of America.

Section 2.2: The Aims and Objectives of CHSAAD shall be as follows:

- A. The purposes for which the Association is organized shall be exclusively charitable within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code.
- B. To pursue developmental objectives for the social, educational, and economic advancement of our alma mater.
- C. To create social opportunities to strengthen the bonds of friendship among members in furtherance of the mission of our alma mater.
- D. To engage in all other activities, NOT in violation of the Association's Constitution, in furtherance of these aims and objectives.

ARTICLE II

MEMBERSHIP

Section 3.1: Membership Eligibility

- A. Membership of the Association shall be open to all alumni (graduates and former students) and former teachers of Carroll High School, as well as spouses of all alumni and former teachers, who shall be considered honorary members, along with sympathizers of CHSAAD.

Section 3.2: Categories of Membership

- A. Active: An active member is one who has paid all dues for the current year. An active member shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges accorded to a member of CHSAAD.
- B. Nonactive: A nonactive member is one who has not paid their dues for the current year. A nonactive member can become active by paying their arrears for the current year.

Section 3.3: Membership Benefits

- A. In the instance of death, graduation, wedding, etc., the association's president shall designate members in close proximity to attend the event on behalf of the Association.
- B. In the event of death, graduation, wedding, etc., of an active member, the Association shall solicit voluntary (non-fixed) contributions from its members and present the same to the member or their family. If an active member dies, all voluntary contributions collected shall be given to the surviving spouse, children, or family of the deceased. The organization shall not retain or withhold any portion of this voluntary contribution. Additionally, voluntary contributions for bereavement other than those of an active member shall be restricted to the spouse, children, and parents of the active member and not extended to other family members. Graduation and wedding support are limited to the active member only.
- C. In the event of the death of an inactive/nonactive member, requests for contributions are optional and at the discretion of the Leadership.

ARTICLE IV

GOVERNING STRUCTURE

Section 4.1: The governing structure of the association shall be comprised of the following bodies: (1) The General Assembly, (2) The Board of Advisors, (3) The Executive Committee, (4) Standing Committees, and (5) Local Chapters.

Section 4.2: The General Assembly or Annual Reunion comprises active members and shall be the association's highest decision-making body.

- A. The General Assembly shall review and approve all programs and reports from the Executive Committee, including those from the Treasurer and the Board of Advisors.
- B. The General Assembly shall elect all National Officers.
- C. The General Assembly shall be held in the month of June each year, and the venue for the following year shall be decided at the General Assembly during the current year.
- D. The General Assembly or Annual Reunion shall be presided over by the President.
- E. Decisions of the General Assembly shall be determined by a simple majority vote of the delegates present. These decisions shall be final and binding on the Board, the Executive Committee, and all other organs of the Association.
- F. The General Assembly shall approve the Association's Annual Operational Budget. The fiscal year of the Association shall be from July 1 to June 30.

Section 4.3: The Board of Advisors

The Board of Advisors is a vital component of the organization, providing guidance and expertise to the Executive Committee. To serve on the Board of Advisors, individuals must meet the following requirements:

- A. Eligibility Requirements: Individuals must meet the following criteria to be considered for a position on the Board of Advisors:
    1. Members shall be alumni, non-alumni, former teachers of CHS, or individuals who have a strong connection to CHS and/or a passion for educational development/academic excellence.

- B. Composition of the Board: The Board of Advisors shall consist of the following members:
    1. Seven (7) members elected by the General Assembly. A Board Member may be elected either in person or in absentia.
    2. Two (2) members shall be from Carroll High, Grassfield; two (2) members shall be from Carroll High, Yekepa; two (2) members shall be former teachers and/or individuals with a passion for educational excellence and/or a strong connection to CHS; one (1) member shall be an alumnus residing in a country other than the U.S.A.
    3. The President shall serve as a non-voting member of the Board of Advisors.
- C. Term Limits: Board members shall serve no more than two consecutive terms. Each term shall last two years. A member may be reappointed to the board after a two-year break.
- D. Leadership Roles: The Board of Advisors shall have the authority to elect its chairman, co-chairman, and secretary. The chairman shall preside over all proceedings and deliberations during board meetings.
- E. Internal Rules and Policies: The Board of Advisors shall be responsible for developing its own internal rules and policies to ensure the smooth operation of its functions.
- F. Voting Rights: Each member of the Board of Advisors is entitled to one (1) vote in all board meetings and elections, except the President, who is a non-voting member.
- G. Financial Accounting: The Board of Advisors and the Executive Committee shall develop financial policies for accounting and control purposes. In the absence of a financial policy, the Board shall set spending limits for the Executive Committee. Any expenditure exceeding these limits shall require Board authorization.
- H. The Board of Advisors shall appoint the Elections Committee.

Section 4.4: The Executive Committee

The Executive Committee shall be one of the principal governing bodies of the Association, having full authority, as vested by the Annual Convention/General Assembly, to design programs and projects subject to approval by the General Assembly.

- A. The Executive Committee shall serve as the principal administrative body of the Association, responsible for executing the day-to-day operations. It shall be headed by the President, who serves as the Association's Chief Executive Officer and spokesperson, responsible for conducting the affairs of the Association.
- B. The Executive Committee, led by the President and/or a designated officer, shall represent the Association at all forums.
- C. It shall receive and review all reports from standing and ad hoc committees, except those of the Board of Advisors and the General Assembly.
- D. The Executive Committee shall present quarterly and annual reports, through the President, on the general affairs of the Association. These reports shall be provided in written form to the General Membership/General Assembly before or during meetings and conventions.
- E. The Executive Committee shall, in consultation with the Board of Advisors, present annual programs for action, including the fiscal year budget and other reports, to the General Assembly.
- F. The Executive Committee shall consist of four (4) elected officers: President, Vice President, Secretary-General, and Treasurer, as well as six (6) appointed officers: Public Relations Officer, Assistant Secretary General, Assistant Treasurer, and three (3) Standing Committee chairpersons.
- G. Members of the Executive Committee shall serve no more than two consecutive terms. Each term shall last two years. A member of the Executive Committee may be reappointed/re-elected after a two-year break.
- H. Voting: Each member of the Executive Committee is entitled to one (1) vote in all Executive Committee meetings and elections.

Section 4.5: Standing Committees

- A. The Standing Committees are:
    1. Ways, Means, Finance & Resource Committee
    2. Planning and Social Committee
    3. Membership and Recruitment Committee

    These committees shall serve as the strategic planning and operational arms of the organization and shall report to the Executive Committee. They are tasked with carrying out the aims and objectives of the Association, as outlined in this Constitution.
- B. Upon recommendation of the Executive Committee, the President shall appoint all Standing Committee chairpersons and committee members in consultation with the Board of Advisors. All Standing Committees shall develop their own internal rules and guidelines to ensure effective functioning and to fulfill their responsibilities.
- C. Each Standing Committee shall be presided over by its chairperson.

Section 4.6: Local State/Regional Chapters

- A. A local State/Regional Chapter shall be organized in any state or region where there are ten (10) or more alumni or former teachers of Carroll High School. Alumni from that state/region can petition the Executive Committee for approval to constitute themselves into a chapter, provided the formation is accountable to the national leadership and operates within the constitution of the CHS Alumni Association in the Diaspora.
- B. The Executive Committee, in close consultation with the Advisory Board, shall accredit and approve all local State/Regional Chapters.
- C. A local State/Regional Chapter shall consist of five (5) elected officers: Chairman, Vice Chairman, Secretary, Treasurer, and Parliamentarian. These officers shall serve for two (2) years per term with no term limits for Officers of the Local/Regional Chapters. The Chairman shall preside over all meetings of the chapter.

- D. Local State/Regional Chapters shall be accountable to the organization's Executive Committee, but they may initiate their own programs and projects to support their chapters and the National Association.
- E. Local State/Regional Chapters shall be governed by this Constitution and By-laws, but they shall be granted the flexibility to develop their own internal rules and regulations to meet the specific needs of their members.

ARTICLE V

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF OFFICERS

Section 5.1: The officers of CHSAAD shall consist of the President, Vice President, Secretary-General, Assistant Secretary-General, Treasurer, Assistant Treasurer, and Public Relations Officer. Each officer shall serve no more than two consecutive terms. The duration of each term shall be two years. A former officer shall become eligible to seek elected office again after a two-year break.

Section 5.2: The President shall:

- A. Preside over all deliberations during Executive Committee meetings and serve as the official spokesperson and head of the administration. In the President's absence, the Vice President will assume such responsibilities.
- B. Plan and preside over all regular and called meetings.
- C. Plan and preside over all proceedings of the Executive Committee, except where otherwise decided in accordance with this Constitution.
- D. Make an annual written report to the General Assembly on the Association's achievements and shortcomings, including a comprehensive financial report. The financial report shall be presented bi-annually—once in January and again in June during the alumni annual convention. Additionally, the Board of Advisors or the General Assembly may demand a comprehensive financial report. The President shall also serve as one of the signatories to the Association's bank accounts, as one of three authorized signatories.

- E. In the event that any member(s) of the Executive Committee resign, the President, in consultation with the Board of Advisors, shall appoint a replacement until the next election.
- F. Appoint ad hoc or special committees to assist in carrying out assignments in the interest of the organization. Such committees shall be dissolved once their work is completed.

Section 5.3: The Vice President shall:

- A. Serve as the principal deputy to the President.
- B. Perform all duties and exercise the powers of the President as stipulated in this Constitution in the absence or disability of the President.
- C. Assist the President and perform other duties as may be delegated by the President and the Executive Committee.

Section 5.4: The Secretary-General shall:

- A. Be responsible for maintaining the records of all proceedings, documentation, meetings, and membership records of the organization.
- B. Record minutes of the Executive Committee and all general meetings.
- C. Inform members of general and called meetings through emails, written citations, phone calls, texts, etc.
- D. Be responsible for all written communication and correspondence of CHSAAD.
- E. Perform other duties as may be delegated by the President or the Executive Committee, as outlined in this Constitution.

Section 5.5: The Assistant Secretary-General shall:

- A. In the absence or disability of the Secretary-General, perform the duties and exercise the powers of the Secretary-General.
- B. Assist the Secretary-General in carrying out duties and perform additional functions that promote the aims and objectives of the Association.

- C. Perform other duties as delegated by the Secretary-General or the President.

Section 5.6: The Treasurer shall:

- A. Collect, maintain custody of, and safeguard all funds of the organization. The Treasurer shall keep records of all monies collected and expenditures made and shall make these records available for audit.
- B. Be responsible for handling the collection and payment of dues, contributions, donations, and other income of the Association.
- C. Keep the membership informed of their financial obligations/status and prepare timely quarterly and annual financial reports.
- D. Be a statutory member of the Ways, Means, Finance, and Project Committee and participate in all fundraising activities.
- E. Serve as one of the signatories to the Association's bank accounts.
- F. Ensure that the Association's financial records are appropriately filed and are current with the United States Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and other relevant State and Local Regulatory Institutions.

Section 5.7: The Assistant Treasurer shall:

- A. In the absence or disability of the Treasurer, perform the duties and exercise the powers of the Treasurer.
- B. Assist the Treasurer in performing other duties as delegated by the Treasurer, President, or Executive Committee.
- C. Perform functions that promote the aims and objectives of the Association.

Section 5.8: The Public Relations Officer shall:

- A. Serve as the press representative for the Association.
- B. Provide placards and other publications during reunions and other events.
- C. Manage all external communications and public relations efforts on behalf of the Association.

ARTICLE VI

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF STANDING COMMITTEES

Section 6.1: The Association shall function through the Standing Committees: Ways, Means, Finance & Resource Committee; Planning and Social Committee; and Membership & Recruitment Committee. These committees' chairpersons and members shall be appointed by the President in consultation with the Board of Advisors. Each standing committee shall consist of up to five (5) members. Decisions of standing committees and ad hoc committees shall be reached by a simple majority vote of their members.

Section 6.2: Membership and Recruitment Committee

The Membership and Recruitment Committee shall be responsible for educating, promoting, encouraging, and recruiting members into the Association. The committee shall also be responsible for compiling and processing all membership information, maintaining a roster of active members, and assisting delinquent members in recommitting to the organization.

Section 6.3: Planning and Social Committee

The Planning and Social Committee shall be responsible for implementing all programs and activities of the Association related to its social, cultural, and educational objectives. The committee shall also be responsible for developing a three-to-five-year Strategic Plan for CHSAAD's growth and advancement, as well as an annual calendar of events. This committee shall plan and execute all conventions and related activities. The President may appoint additional members to enhance the committee's productivity.

Section 6.4: Ways, Means, Finance, and Resources Committee

The Ways, Means, Finance, and Resources Committee shall be responsible for identifying, planning, coordinating, and executing fundraising programs, projects, events, and resources for CHSAAD. The committee shall explore various funding sources, including grants from foundations and community-based institutions, to support CHSAAD's programs and long-range plans. The Treasurer shall serve as a statutory member of this committee.

ARTICLE VII

ELECTIONS

Section 7.1: Election Committee

- A. The Board of Advisors shall appoint an ad hoc Election Committee, which will be responsible for organizing and conducting the elections of officers for the organization. The committee shall have the authority to establish rules, requirements, and eligibility criteria for the free, fair, and smooth conduct of elections consistent with this Constitution.
- B. The Election Committee shall be independent and responsible for issuing clear election guidelines, which must be published sixty (60) days before the scheduled elections. The committee shall also certify all candidates running for office. The Election Committee shall be dissolved upon completion of its work.

Section 7.2: Election of Officers

- A. Election: All officers of the Association shall be elected at the Annual Convention or Reunion.
- B. Alternate Elections: To ensure continuity in the Association's governing process, the election of Executive officers and the Board of Advisors shall occur in alternating years. This provision ensures that the election period is staggered so that Executive officers and Board members are not elected in the same year.
- C. Assumption of Duty: All elected officers shall assume their duties at the close of the Annual Convention/Reunion at which the election was held. Outgoing officers shall hand over all CHSAAD records, documents, and property in their possession to the incoming officers within sixty (60) days following the end of their term in office.

ARTICLE VIII

QUORUM AND MEETINGS

Section 8.1: A General Meeting of the Association shall be held once every month. Ten (10) members shall constitute a quorum for the meeting. A quorum for the Executive Committee or the Board of Advisors shall consist of three (3) of its members, including the Chairman or a designated representative.

Section 8.2: When deemed necessary, the President shall call additional meetings, including emergency meetings.

Section 8.3: At least one-fourth of the Association's members may submit a written petition to the Executive Committee to request a general meeting to address their grievances or concerns. The petition must be presented at least two weeks prior to the scheduled meeting.

Section 8.4: General Assembly or Annual Convention or Annual Reunion

- A. There shall be an Annual Convention or Reunion held during the month of June each year in a city/state decided by the General Assembly. The purpose of the convention is to plan strategies for the attainment of the Association's objectives.
- B. The Annual Convention shall be held in June, and the details (including date and venue) shall be conveyed to the general body six months in advance.
- C. The Planning and Social Committee shall be responsible for organizing and executing the Annual Convention.
- D. In the case of unforeseen events or circumstances, the Executive Committee may call for a virtual convention. This provision may be subject to change by the Executive Committee in consultation with the Board, provided advance and adequate notice is given to the General Membership of any such change.

ARTICLE IX

FINANCES AND MONEY MATTERS

Section 9.1: The management of the Association's funds and all related financial matters shall be conducted according to acceptable procedures as outlined in this Constitution.

Section 9.2: The revenues of the organization shall be derived from dues, levies, contributions, donations, grants, fundraising activities, and other legal sources.

Section 9.3: The Association's accounts shall be maintained at a federally insured banking and financial institution(s) agreed upon by the Executive Committee and the Board of Advisors. The accounts shall not be closed, and funds shall not be transferred without the advice and consent of the Board of Advisors.

Section 9.4: The President, Treasurer, and Chairperson of the Board of Advisors shall be signatories to all of CHSAAD's accounts. The President and Treasurer shall be the principal signatories. In the absence of either the President or Treasurer, the Chairperson of the Board shall act in the absence.

Section 9.5: All withdrawals of funds from the Association's accounts shall require the signatures of at least two of the three authorized signatories.

Section 9.6: No expenditure shall be incurred, nor pledge made, by any member on behalf of the Association without prior approval from the Executive Committee.

Section 9.7: The Executive Committee shall develop applicable forms for the disbursement of funds. All payments by or on behalf of the Association shall be drawn from the organization's bank accounts.

Section 9.8: The Treasurer shall receive all funds collected on behalf of the Association and deposit them into the Association's accounts within seventy-two (72) hours.

Section 9.9: An internal audit of the Association's financial records shall be conducted once per operational year or as deemed necessary by the Board, Executive Committee, or General Membership. Audited annual financial reports shall be presented to the Executive Committee, Board of Advisors, and other relevant bodies of CHSAAD within 30 days of the completion of the audit.

Section 9.10: Internal Auditor: An Internal Auditor shall be selected by the Board of Advisors. The auditor must be an active member of the Association with the requisite credentials and competency in accounting/finance. The Internal Auditor shall not be an officer or member of CHSAAD's Executive Committee.

Section 9.11: An external audit of CHSAAD's financial records shall be conducted if requested by the IRS or any state and local institutions, in accordance with nonprofit regulations.

Section 9.12: The Board or Executive Committee may institute fines, suspensions, or expulsion against any member who refuses to cooperate with an audit.

ARTICLE X

FEES AND DUES

Section 10.1: Monthly Dues: Each member of the Association shall be required to pay monthly dues of $10.00 or $120.00 annually. Monthly dues are payable on the last business day of each month. This amount may be reviewed and changed by a simple majority vote of active voting members at the Annual Reunion/Convention.

Section 10.2: Assessed Fees: Members of the Association may be assessed a fee from time to time to fund specific programs or projects. Any such assessed fee must be voted on and agreed upon by the General Membership. Once voted upon, the assessed fee shall be final and binding on all members.

ARTICLE XI

VACANCIES

Section 11.1: Executive and Board of Advisors Vacancies: In the event that a position on the Executive Committee (except the presidency which has a succession clause) or the Board of Advisors becomes vacant due to resignation, impeachment, death, sickness, ineffectiveness, or any other unusual circumstance, the President, in consultation with the Board of Advisors, shall appoint an interim nominee to fill the vacant position until the next election. This vacancy shall be filled within thirty (30) days of the announcement of the vacancy.

ARTICLE XII

EXPULSION

Section 12.1: A member may be expelled from the Association by consensus/vote of the Executive Committee and the Board of Advisors after being investigated and found culpable.

Section 12.2: Causes of Expulsion: Causes for expulsion include, but are not limited to:

- A. Guilty of grave or repeated disorderly conduct at Association gatherings.
- B. Hostile behavior or actions, including aggressive, physical, or verbal abuse against the Association or its members.
- C. Actions inconsistent with the ideals and aspirations of the Association and detrimental to its image and existence.
- D. Repeated dishonesty, such as fraud, theft, vandalism, or any conduct deemed harmful to the organization.

Section 12.3: Accountability: Any member in violation of the above provisions shall be held accountable for their actions.

Section 12.4: Right to Appeal: An expelled member shall have the right to appeal within thirty (30) days of the expulsion by submitting an appeal to the Advisory Board.

ARTICLE XIII

IMPEACHMENT

Section 13.1: Grounds for Impeachment of Elected Officers:

Elected officers of the Association may be impeached for the following reasons:

- A. Gross violation or wanton disregard for the Constitution.
- B. Embezzlement of the organization's funds.
- C. Misappropriation or conversion of the organization's property.
- D. Willful refusal to perform duties as prescribed in the by-laws.
- E. Sowing seeds of discord and disunity.
- F. Using the position or office for personal gain or in an unauthorized manner.
- G. Engaging in any act detrimental to the organization.

Section 13.2: Impeachment Petition by Members: Members have the right to petition the Board of Advisors to begin impeachment proceedings against an elected officer. For the petition to be considered, it must be signed by two-thirds (2/3) of the active members and submitted to the Board. The Board must convene a special session within sixty (60) days of receiving the petition.

The officer facing impeachment shall be granted due process. The Board shall investigate the allegations and determine whether they warrant impeachment. Removal from office requires a simple majority vote at a general meeting or Annual Reunion/Convention.

Section 13.3: Recusal of Officers: An officer subject to impeachment proceedings shall recuse themselves from their duties until the investigation is completed and they are either cleared or removed from office.

ARTICLE XIV

SUCCESSION

Section 14.1: Order of Succession: The line of succession to the presidency shall be in the following order: Vice President, Secretary-General, and Treasurer.

Section 14.2: Succession of Other Officers: In the event of the resignation, impeachment, incapacity, relocation outside of the USA, or death of the Vice President, Secretary-General, and Treasurer, the President shall nominate a successor in consultation with the Board of Advisors.

ARTICLE XV

FIDUCIARY MATTERS

Section 15.1: Right to Legal Action: CHSAAD reserves the right to pursue legal actions against any member(s) for grave misconduct and/or misappropriation of funds and resources.

ARTICLE XVI

AMENDMENTS AND RATIFICATION

Section 16.1: General Assembly, Annual Reunion/Convention, or Special Session: This Constitution and By-Laws shall be amended and ratified by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the members present at the Annual Reunion/Convention or at a Special Session.

Section 16.2: Notice of Amendments: Proposed amendments to CHSAAD's Constitution shall be accompanied by a statement of reasons explaining why the amendments are necessary. The notice of amendments shall be served at least 30 days prior to the Annual Reunion/Convention or Special Session to all members.

Section 16.3: Review of Constitution: These by-laws may be amended, altered, or repealed by a simple majority vote at the Annual Reunion/Convention or Special Session whenever it becomes necessary and expedient to do so, in accordance with the articles of incorporation.

Section 16.4: Transition After Ratification: This revised Constitution shall take effect immediately upon ratification by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the active members at the Annual Reunion/Convention or Special Session of CHSAAD.

CONFLICT RESOLUTION BOARD/EXECUTIVE

In the event that the Executive Committee encounters ethical issues or disagreements that may disrupt its normal functions, the Board shall intervene to restore order.

Conflict Resolution Process: The Board shall initiate a structured conflict resolution process, which may include mediation, discussion, and problem-solving, to address issues within the Executive Committee.

Appointment of Mediators: Impartial mediators shall be appointed from within the Board to facilitate discussions and negotiations during the conflict resolution process.

Timeline for Resolution: A reasonable timeframe shall be established for resolving conflicts, ensuring that disruptions are minimized and that the organization can continue its operations smoothly.

Appeals Process: Should any party involved in the conflict disagree with the resolution provided by the Board or General Body, they may have the right to appeal the decision, following a separate appeals process outlined in this Constitution.

Confidentiality: All discussions and documents related to conflict resolution shall be treated with utmost confidentiality to encourage open and honest communication.

Record Keeping: Comprehensive records of all conflict resolution activities, decisions, and outcomes shall be maintained for transparency and accountability.

Communication Channels: Clear communication channels shall be established between the Board, Executive Committee, and the General Body during the conflict resolution process to ensure that all relevant parties are informed and involved in the resolution efforts.

If the Board is unable to reinstate normalcy within the Executive Committee, it shall convene a General Body meeting to address and resolve the issue.
